There is a new born baby girl wrapped in a T-shirt. Lionel knows what it feels like to be abandoned. His father left when he was seven. He wants to be the one to take care of her. Some years ago I read The Trouble with Half a Moon. I was glad to see another novel by this talented author. Lionel was wise beyond his years. His hard-working mother taught him right from wrong. His father stayed on his mind. I felt for him. Sad but true. That 'a good heart' is all that's needed. And it's not enough to believe in God alone. Hardcover
