Jake Randall was trying to escape evil. He starts typing away on his old Royal typewriter. Because he can't seem to write it any other way. The proprietor is an odd man but Jake needs him. What he doesn't know is that it may be his last. It's like an itch in the mind." -Jake Randall
This is a brilliant read. Love the well fleshed out characters and found them believable. Great suspense and action with wonderful world building. Can't wait to read what the author brings out next. Recommend reading. Put this on your want to read list. No one—and I mean NO ONE—would sleep well that night. Don't read this at night in an empty house. Not so much. No one is safe. Yeah I didn't sleep much after that. But it won't be that easy. No matter what. The story he's writing now may be his best ever. But it also might be his last. Typewriter Repair Shop: A Ridge Falls Story.
