Excerpt from The Soldier's Friend: Or Memorials of Brunswick a Poem Sacred to the Memory of His Royal Highness Frederick Duke of York and Albany Commander in-Chief of All His Majesty's Forces The course of war and the career of arms afford no congenial theme for a Minister of the gospel of peace. Book The Soldiers friends Yet if it be natural for us to feel an honest pride in the still recent laurels that our countrymen have so nobly gained in the cause of liberty and justice; if it be a source of triumph to feel that our military fame and strength secure us against all danger or at least against all dread of foreign hostility; if we delight to witness in the higher ranks of the British Army that elevated sense of honour which though it may not make ambition virtue yet softens all the horrors and ferocity of war -if lastly we behold with pleasure a provision made for the time-worn soldier or for the tender orphans of those who have fallen in their country's service; then let a Nation's gratitude follow the lamented individual under whose auspices and exertions this picture has been so fully realized. The Soldiers friendventure digitalagentur The Soldiers Friend: Or Memorials of Brunswick a Poem Sacred to the Memory of His Royal Highness Frederick Duke of York and Albany Commander In-Chief of All His Majesty's Forces (Classic Reprint)
