

Scenes From An Executive Life By Anurag Mathur It is the story of Gambhir Kumar Human Resource Development Manager in the Y Corporation whose life is never the same again after he is transferred to the Tissues and Toothpicks Division. As he travels up and down the corporate ladder Gambhir redefines the role of the young urban professional who must strike a delicate balance between his heady ambitions and the lustful demands of his heart. The novel also features some unforgettable cameos: Gambhir's wife Draupadi (DD to her friends) who fights the ennui of yuppie life with boyfriends in the afternoons; Kapila Gambhir's passionate bedfellow from the Bombay office; 'Smiley' Chatterjee the adman with a three-word vocabulary; and Kumar a self-styled entrepreneur intent on selling the sword of Gautam Buddha to American tourists.

A delightfully irreverent account of corporate affairs in the white collar world, From the author of the best-selling The Inscrutable Americans comes a hilarious novel about the roller-coaster career of an enterprising marketing executive. Scenes from an Executive Life is an immensely entertaining exploration of ambition lust envy and intrigue in a typical corporate set-up in post-liberalization India. Scenes From An Executive Life Anurag Mathur was born in New Delhi and educated at Scindia School (Gwalior) St. before returning home to India to embark on a career in journalism and publishing: He now lives in New Delhi and contributes regularly to leading Indian magazines and newspapers: He is also the author of a travel guide called 22 Days in India, A fanatical cricket player he also plays tennis and enjoys travelling.
