

Fifteenth Annual Report of the State Board of Health of the State of Rhode Island, for the Year Ending December 31, 1893: And Including the Report Upon the Registration of Birth, Marriages and Deaths in 1891 (Classic Reprint) By Unknown

Excerpt from Fifteenth Annual Report of the State Board of Health of the State of Rhode Island for the Year Ending December 31 1893: And Including the Report Upon the Registration of Birth Marriages and Deaths in 1891 Compared with January 1891 the general amount of sickness was very much larger in January 1892 the cases of bronchitis and pneumonia being reported as having an excess in numbers of from two to three times as many in 1892 the excess being caused by the epidemic influenza. Compared with the corresponding month in 1891 the atmospheric pressure was nearly the same; the mean temperature was two degrees higher; the mean amount of cloud one-tenth greater; the amount of melted snow and rain one-half inch more in 1892. Fifteenth Annual Report of the State Board of Health of the State of Rhode Island for the Year Ending December 31 1893: And Including the Report Upon the Registration of Birth Marriages and Deaths in 1891 (Classic Reprint)Books can be attributed to Unknown when the author or editor (as applicable) is not known and cannot be discovered, The amount Of snow fall was four inches less in January 1892. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books: com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work, Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy, In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition. We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully; any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works. If at all possible list at least one actual author or editor for a book instead of using Unknown. Books whose authorship is purposefully withheld should be attributed instead to Anonymous. Books can be attributed to Unknown when the author or editor (as applicable) is not known and cannot be discovered, If at all possible list at least one actual author or editor for a book instead of using Unknown: Books whose authorship is purposefully withheld should be attributed instead to Anonymous. Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com.