And I couldn't agree . That's how I felt at any rate. In short.

Book MARSHLIGHT a totally gripping psychological thriller with a stunning twists and turns

Gina. Somewhere that you do not want to be at night. Marshlight is her best yet. A great plot with a superb cast of characters. It took until the early Eighties but I did it. An old friend's sister disappears without a trace. Meanwhile Liz's cousin Christie comes to stay. I absolutely loved it. And that ending well just WOW! Dawn I absolutely loved it. Viv will keep you guessing until the end of the book. The actions of other characters are also convincing. I found myself thinking move on move on. But it does wind up in a satisfactory way. Just not the usual tense dramas I'm used to. Maybe even 1. Matt Ballard and Liz played a secondary role at best. Just fast forwarded to the end instead. And was sorely disappointed
