. And this book did not disappoint. She also writes MF romance as Maisy Archer. Its kinda my theme song. My former best friend. The boy who made my summers on Whispering Key magical. Trying to be just friends would tear me apart. Were a broken chord. A blue note. Hopelessly out of tune. Or so I thought. I love her writing and the way she put everything. I can't think of anyone who does it as well. Definitely recommend. I love this book
